

43rd Annual Meeting of the Heidegger Circle — Hilton Cincinnati Netherland Plaza Hotel — May 8-10, 2009

Thursday, May 7

8-9 pm Reception
Mezzanine (above Palm Court)

Further hotel events are in Rookwood (4th floor).

Friday, May 8

8:30-10 am Continental breakfast

10 am Welcome: Richard Polt (Xavier University)

10:10-12 Formal indication

Chair: Richard Capobianco (Stonehill College)

Leslie MacAvoy (East Tennessee State University), “Formal Indication and the Hermeneutics of Facticity”

Robert Crease (Stony Brook University), “Formal Indicators and Scientific Concepts”

Respondent: Theodore Kisiel (Northern Illinois University)

12-1:30 Lunch

1:30-2:30 pm

Chair: Walter Brogan (Villanova University)

Anne O’Byrne (Stony Brook University),

“Metontology and the Metaphysics of Existence”

Respondent: Benjamin Crowe (University of Utah)

2:30-3:30

Chair: Jeffrey Bricker (Ohio State University)

Pol Vandavelde (Marquette University),

“Translation as Potentialization: Heidegger’s
Reformulation of Schlegel’s and Novalis’
Romantic Project”

Respondent: Carolyn Culbertson (University of Oregon)

3:30-3:45 Coffee break

3:45-4:45

Chair: Daniel Dwyer (Xavier University)

Eric Mohr (Duquesne University), “Scheler’s More Fundamental Ontology: His Critique of Being and Time”

Respondent: Lawrence Hatab (Old Dominion University)

4:45-5:45

Chair: Richard Hearn (independent scholar)

Fred Dallmayr (University of Notre Dame), “Agency and Letting-Be: Heidegger on Primordial Praxis”

Respondent: Charles Guignon (University of South Florida)

8:00-10:00

Film: “The Ister,” part 1

Saturday, May 9

8-9 am Continental breakfast

9-10

Chair: Scott Campbell

(Nazareth College of Rochester)

Emilia Angelova (Trent University), “Time’s
Disquiet and Unrest: Between Heidegger and Levinas”

Respondent: Leon Niemoczynski (Immaculata University)

10-11

Chair: Julia Ireland (Whitman College)

Lauren Freeman (Boston University), “‘I am you, if I am I’: A Feminist Approach to Selfhood and the Other in the Thinking of Martin Heidegger”

Respondent: Donovan Miyasaki (Wright State University)

11:00-12:00

Chair: Bob Sandmeyer (University of Kentucky)

Robert D. Stolorow (Institute of Contemporary Psychoanalysis), “Trauma and Human Existence:
The Mutual Enrichment of Heidegger’s
Existential Analytic and a Psychoanalytic
Understanding of Trauma”

Respondent: Lou Agosta (independent scholar)

12:00-1:30 Lunch

1:30-2:30 pm

Chair: Allen Scult (Drake University)

Andrew Mitchell (Emory University), “Heidegger
Among the Sculptors: Ernst Barlach and the Materiality of Production”

Respondent: Ingvild Torsen (Florida International University)

2:30-2:45 Coffee break

2:45-4:30 Heidegger and Ecology

Chair: Tim Hyde, Stony Brook University

Trish Glazebrook (Dalhousie University),
“Heidegger and Ecophenomenology”

Brendan Mahoney (Binghamton University),
“Da-sein’s Earthly Body: Ethos as Eco-logic”

4:30-5:00

In memoriam: Manfred S. Frings and Joseph J. Kockelmans

Speakers: William J. Richardson, SJ
and Theodore Kisiel

5:00-5:45 Business Meeting

6-8 Banquet at Nada, 600 Walnut St.

9:00-10:30

Film: “The Ister,” part 2

Sunday, May 10

8-9 am Continental breakfast

9-10:30 Untruth and negativity in the 1930s

Chair: Charles Seibert (University of Cincinnati)

Graeme Nicholson (University of Toronto), “Untruth in the Theaetetus: Lectures from 1933-34”

Daniel Dahlstrom (Boston University),
“Thinking of Nothing: Heidegger’s Criticism of Hegel’s Conception of Negativity”

10:30-10:45 Coffee break

10:45-12:15 Traveling the Ister

Chair: David Pettigrew (S. Connecticut State U.)

Shane Ewegen (Boston College), “A Unity of Opposites: Heidegger’s Journey through Plato”

Babette Babich (Fordham University), “The Ister:
Between the Documentary and Heidegger’s
Lecture Course: Reading Philosophy, Politics, and Technology Between Hölderlin and Milton”